Detailed Report

23th May - 28th May, 2018

Mar Athanasios College for Advanced Studies Tiruvalla in association with YMCA Thiruvalla organized a Jackfruit – Mango fest at YMCA Hall in Thiruvalla from 23 to 28 May, 2018. 69 students from the School of Biosciences actively participated in this programme. The festival gives an opportunity for the students to develop value-added food products from cheap and locally available raw materials such as Jackfruit, and Mango. In this exhibition, a stall was arranged by our students. 23 value added products such as Mango Jam, Jackfruit payasam, Jackfruit cutlets, Jackfruit samosa, Jackfruit mixture, Jackfruit seed burfi etc. were displayed and sold in the fest. As part of this programme, Mrs. Beena Cherian was the resource person for conducting a seminar on the topic ‘Value added products from Jackfruit and Mango’ on 26th May, 2018. The seminar was inaugurated by the Shri Mathew T Thomas, Minister of Water Resources. In addition to this, students were also actively involved in giving an awareness to start a house-hold industry by using underutilized raw materials.

Detailed Report

9th -14th May 2017

Mar Athanasios College for Advanced Studies Tiruvalla in association with YMCA Thiruvalla organized a Jackfruit - Mango - Papaya Festival at YMCA Hall in Tiruvalla from 9th May to 14th May 2017. The event was inaugurated by the Most Rev Dr Philipose Mar Chrysostom, Bishop of Marthoma Church. The fest gave an opportunity for the current batch of students to develop value-added food products from cheap and locally available food materials such as Jackfruit, Mango and Papaya. The food materials were prepared by the students at the department and then later transported to the festival ground by them. At the festival, the food materials were exhibited at a food stall arranged by the students. More than 18 edible items were developed from these raw materials for the festival. 62 students from the School of Biosciences were actively involved in this programme.
