Report of activities related to clean and green campus and celebrating environment day

The Clean and Green City project of the college was officially inaugurated on November 1, 2010, in connection with the first-anniversary celebration of Radio MACFAST 90.4, campus-community radio at MACFAST. The focus was to address the pertinent need of environment management in Tiruvalla, as part of an emerging corporate social responsibility of our institution. With initiatives of NSS unit student representatives, students from all departments carried out the prior monsoon cleaning of nearby hospitals and schools. Students of the institution strongly believed that these kinds of activities are part of attitudes and habits. To show their respect towards the environment they frequently took initiative in planting seedlings in the college campus. Every year June 5th is celebrated with the slogan of sustainable environment and students' initiated in directing short films which showed the significance of plastic-free campus.

Report of Onam celebrations 2019

Kerala's regional festival, Onam was celebrated with its full pace in the institution with the support student council on 6th September 2019. College union or student council representatives had a semester-wise meeting with department students to preparing the programme schedules. The celebrations included competitions and other programmes which were judged by the faculty members from all departments. The programmes commenced at 7 am with the making of floral carpet(Athapookalam). The slot for making floral carpet will be decided by student council representatives and faculty members by lot. There were a variety of programmes such as songs, dance, quiz and many other programmes of regional importance which were co-ordinated by the students' council in a highly appreciable way. The institution provided financial support to students for preparing the floral carpet. Onam feast was also provided by the college for the staff and students under the coordination of the student council.

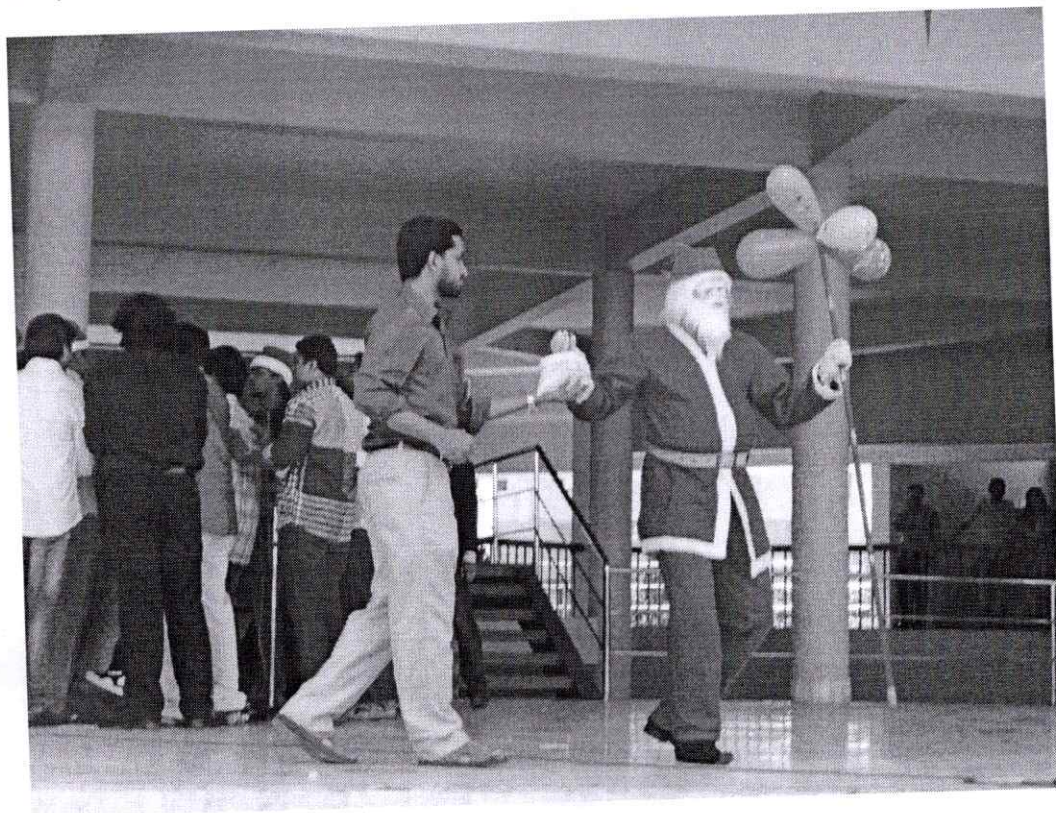

Photographs of Onam celebrations, 2019

Report of Christmas celebrations

The student council initiated the celebrations with a wide range of programmes on 19th December 2019. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was the major attraction of the Christmas celebration. Batch-wise programmes such as carol songs, Christmas skits, and drama were also part of the programme.

Report of MACFIESTA 2019 (College fest on IT, Management and Science)

The national-level college fest, MACFIESTA 2019 was conducted on 18th December 2019 with the support of the student council. The fest was a huge success by which the student council coordinated representatives from the Department of Biosciences, Management studies, and Computer applications with over 600 participants from all over the country. These fests were a blend of information and entertainment which adequately allowed the students inside and outside the college to exhibit their talents and skills. The role of the student council was very crucial for the conduct of this program, as the participation was very high. The student council and faculty coordinators guided the student representatives and managed the event in a highly professional way. This National-level fest helped the students to lead many events and games which made them more productive and professional in their future endeavors.

List of Students representatives as event coordinators guided by student council members are given below:
