Report on the Webinar

“Research and its dissemination during the pandemic”

Magdalena, Skipper, Editor-in-chief, Nature

20 October 2020

The G N Ramachandran Science Club (affiliated with Vigyan Prasar, Govt. of India), MACFAST organized a webinar “Research and its dissemination during the pandemic” by Magdalena, Skipper, Editor-in-chief, Nature, on 20th October 2020 at 2pm IST through Zoom platform. Prof. Biju D, HoD, School of Biosciences welcomed the resource person and participants for this webinar. The resource person explain well about influence of COVID 19 pandemic situation on scientific research. She also elaborated the research information dissemination in an era of a pandemic especially in COVID-19. Faculty members, research scholars, and professionals from different institutions and organisations actively participated in this webinar. 144 participants attended the session. The participants found this webinar highly knowledgeable and insightful well appreciated the speaker. The event was co-ordinated by Prof. Biju D and Er. Ebin Philip Thomson.

Magdalena Skipper

Magdalena is a geneticist by training and has considerable editorial and publishing experience: having started in Nature Publishing Group in 2001, she was Chief Editor of Nature Reviews Genetics, Senior Editor for genetics and genomics at Nature, and more recently Executive Editor for the Nature Partner Journals. Before joining Nature as Editor in Chief she was Editor in Chief of Nature Communications. She studied sex determination at the MRC Laboratory of Molecular Biology, Cambridge, UK, and Notch signalling in the vertebrate gut epithelium at the ICRF Laboratories (CRUK today), London. She is passionate about mentorship, transparent science and clarity in science communication. She has a keen interest in innovation in science publishing. Magdalena is based in the London office.
